Trail Report:

Trail work is still going on and we are almost done! There are some odds and ends still to do, but we just need some snow so dragging can begin and we can ride! An appreciation breakfast for those who worked on the trails (and their spouses) will be held at 8:00am on 11/22 at the Club

Safety Officer:

No safety report this meeting

New Business:

- We will have a new Christmas tree and decorations this year! Thank you to Claire Young for this donation.
- The insulation on the doors needs to be replaced. Norm B. will be getting the insulation and installing it.

Old Business:

- Options regarding buying gas for dragging
 - Daylene C. to check out prepaid cards
 - Mike B to look at other options
- Mike to update snowmobile crossing road signs
- Information about cost of new outside light
- Update on selling the drag
- Cleaning out the furnace room
- 50-50 was won by Shawn Box
- Norm B. has taken pictures of the drag that we are trying to sell and we do have an interested buyer. He will be following up and report on the progress.
- Membership renewal time is here! If you have not renewed your membership, please do so now as that is the only way we can get the newsletter out to you.

Fund raisers:

- October 23rd public supper was well received by all who attended. We had some of our land owners come with their certificates and they really liked the idea. Tim Monroe won the 50/50 at the dinner and donated it back to the club. Congratulations Tim and THANK YOU!
- Yankee candle sale has closed and it is estimated that we will do better this year than last. Many thanks to all who contributed to this success!
- Raffle tickets for the Thanksgiving basket have been printed and are ready sell. Please bring the items you signed up for to the November 16th meeting.
- MSA raffle tickets are still available. See Mike Barden to get tickets and sell, sell, sell.
- Brenda is still collecting bottles for the club.
